

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

ELIZABETH DE COSTER et al., on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated,

Plaintiffs,

v.

AMAZON.COM, INC., a Delaware corporation,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:21-cv-00693-JHC

STIPULATED MOTION AND ORDER
REGARDING EXTENSION OF
WORD LIMIT FOR CLASS
CERTIFICATION BRIEFING

NOTE ON MOTION CALENDAR:
August 15, 2024

STIPULATION

The parties, by and through their counsel, have agreed and stipulate as follows:

1. The parties agree that good cause justifies an extension of the word limit on the parties' class certification briefing. "[T]his is a significant, substantial case." [Dkt. 124 at 4.] Antitrust cases are by nature complex, and Plaintiffs' proposed consumer class action on behalf of Amazon customers is one of the largest antitrust classes to proceed to the certification stage. Courts commonly allow extended briefing in complex litigation, and the parties agree that such an extension is appropriate to allow them to fully address the Court's rigorous analysis of class certification requirements.

2. The parties therefore propose the following modification of the Court's word limit:

Brief	Current Word Limit (LCR 7(e)(3))	Proposed Word Limit
Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification	8,400	14,500
Amazon's Opposition to Motion to Certify Class	8,400	14,500
Plaintiffs' Reply in Support of Motion to Certify Class	4,200	7,250

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED by and between the parties, through their undersigned counsel of record, and the parties ask the Court to order, that:

- Plaintiffs may file a class certification motion not to exceed 14,500 words.
- Amazon may file an opposition not to exceed 14,500 words.
- Plaintiffs may file a reply brief not to exceed 7,250 words.

1 IT IS SO STIPULATED.
